Analysis by the Labor and Industry Review Commission

Statutes interpreted: None

Statutory authority: Wis. Stat. § 103.04(2)

Explanation of agency authority:

“103.04 Labor and industry review commission.

“(2) Notwithstanding s. 227.11, the commission may not promulgate rules except that it may promulgate its rules of procedure.”

Related statutes or rule: Wis. Stat. §§ 40.65 (2), 59.88, 62.624, 102.18 (3) and (4), 106.52 (4), 106.56 (4), 108.09 (6), 108.095 (6), 108.10 (2) and (3), 111.39 (5) (a), 303.07 (7) and 303.21, 1981 Wis. Stat. § 66.191.

Plain language analysis:

The Labor and Industry Review Commission's (commission) proposed rule order addresses rules identified as unnecessary or conflicting with statutory provisions, pursuant to the process contained in Wis. Stat. § 227.29. The commission also generally reviewed its rules for accuracy and completeness. The commission also seeks to simplify its rules by combining them into a single chapter. Generally, the proposed rule updates addresses, phone numbers, and web addresses that have changed since the rule was last modified in 2006, and makes other minor changes to reflect statutory changes occurring since then.

In LIRC 1, the general operating rules for the commission, the proposed rule order is revised to reflect statutory changes giving the commission jurisdiction for review in worker classification compliance cases under Wis. Stat. § 103.06(6)(c) (enacted by 2009 Wis. Act 292), cases involving false statements with made with respect to an unemployment insurance to obtain benefits payable to another person under Wis. Stat. § 108.095(6) (enacted by 1999 Wisconsin Act 15), and cases involving certain local government duty disability benefits under Wis. Stat. § 59.88 and 62.624 (2015 Wis. Act 55, Sections 1923p and 1948L). The proposed rule also adds definitions to be used generally in the rules. In recognition of the fact that unemployment insurance decisions are subject to time lapse standards, the proposed rule shortens the time period for filing an answer to a petition from 21 to 14 days. The proposed rule also makes a number of stylistic changes to improve clarity and conform to current rule drafting practices.

The proposed rule merges LIRC 2, regarding procedural rules for filing petitions for commission review of unemployment insurance appeal tribunal decisions, with LIRC 1. The proposed rule reflects statutory changes providing that petitions may no longer be filed with the Department of Workforce Development (Wis. Stat. § 108.09(6), as affected by 2015 Wis. Act 334, Section 50). The proposed rule also reflects current LIRC practice which permits the filing of petitions for review in unemployment insurance and worker classification compliance cases in several ways including by mail, by fax, in person at the commission's office, or online at the commission's website. The rule is further revised to reflect the fact that the provisions contained in LIRC 2 also pertain to review of appeal tribunal decisions regarding worker classification compliance, pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 103.06(6)(c). The revised rule also deletes the provisions relating to judicial review that restate statutory provisions regarding appealing commission decisions to circuit court and are therefore redundant, except with respect to a provision allowing service of pleadings in actions for judicial review on the commission by mail which is retained.

The proposed rule merges LIRC 3, regarding procedural rules for filing petitions for commission review of worker's compensation cases, with LIRC 1. The proposed rule updates the location at which petitions for commission review in worker's compensation cases to reflect statutory changes permitting petitions to be filed with the commission, the Division of Hearings and Appeals of the Department of Administration, or the Department of Workforce Development (see Wis. Stat. § 102.18(3), as affected by 2015 Wis. Act 55, Section 2831d) and clarifies that petitions may be filed in several ways including by mail, by fax, in person, or online at the commission's website. The proposed rule also provides for the remand of compromises to the Division of Hearings and Appeals to reflect amendments to Wis. Stat. §§ 102.18 (4)(d) by Wis. Act. 55, Sections 2843d, and 2847d. The revised rule also deletes the provisions relating to judicial review that restate statutory provisions regarding appealing commission decisions to circuit court and are therefore redundant, except with respect to provisions allowing service of pleadings in actions for judicial review on the commission by mail which is retained.

The proposed rule merges LIRC 4, regarding procedural rules for filing petitions for commission review of equal rights administrative law judge decisions, with LIRC 1. The revised rule also deletes the provisions relating to judicial review that restate statutory provisions regarding appealing commission decisions to circuit court and are therefore redundant.

Summary of, and comparison with, existing or proposed federal regulation: There is no existing or proposed federal regulation that is intended to address the activities to be regulated by the rule.

Comments received during preliminary comment period. The commission solicited comments concerning its scope statement from the bureau of legal affairs in the unemployment insurance division in the department of workforce development; the equal rights division in the department of workforce development; the worker's compensation division in the department of workforce development; and the division of hearings and appeals in the department of administration. The commission also posted its scope statement and a draft of the proposed rules on its website on November 22, 2021. The only comment the commission received concerned retaining language in current §§ LIRC 2.05 and 3.05 dealing with acceptance of service of pleadings in actions for judicial review by mail, and the commission's proposed rules include a provision retaining that language.

Comparison with rules in adjacent states:

Illinois and Iowa have administrative rules governing procedures by administrative appellate bodies for review of decisions following hearings in unemployment insurance, workers compensation, and equal rights cases. Michigan has administrative rules governing procedures by administrative appellate bodies for review of decisions following hearings in unemployment insurance and workers compensation cases. Minnesota has administrative rules governing procedures by the Minnesota workers' compensation court of appeals for review of decisions following hearings in workers compensation cases. Those rules, which are generally consistent with changes to the commission's procedure made in the proposed rule order, are:

- Ill. Admin. Code tit. 50, sections 9040.10 to 9040.80 (Review by Illinois workers' compensation commission)
- Ill. Admin. Code tit. 56, sections 2720.300 to 2720.245 (Appeals to board of review – Unemployment insurance)
